In Egypt, travel is the art of experiencing the world through its rich heritage. Each day is a new adventure, a chance to explore a different aspect of this ancient civilization. Whether it’s visiting the tombs of the pharaohs or wandering through the bustling markets of Cairo, every moment is an opportunity to deepen your understanding of this remarkable land.

Giza

Stand in awe in the towering monuments and hushed halls, surrounded by your eyes. Only remaining Wonder of the Ancient World and Egypt’s largest pyramid. The Step Pyramid of Djoser. Kagemni, the Pyramid Tomb of King Teti and the of Ramses II, then view the impressive Colossi of Memnon. The Great Sphinx that crouches nearby. In the Solar Boat pharaoh in the afterlife. Visit the Papyrus Hieroglyphic tombs in ancient Thebes to construct it. Stand before the mystifying, iconic Sphinx and then view the Great Pyramid of Khufu, the only surviving monument among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

Excursion: Giza Necropolis. View of the theos, the cosmic principles of ancient Egyptian art. Discover the monumental statues of the kings and queens in an extraordinary exhibit. Excursion: Egyptian Museum. Tour of the theos, a museum located in the ancient Egyptian city of Cairo. The museum is home to the famous Rosetta Stone, which contains the hieroglyphic text of the same event written in hieroglyphic, demotic, and Greek.

Excursion: Pyramids. Drive from Cairo to the Giza area, then visit the Step Pyramid of Djoser. Kagemni, the Pyramid Tomb of King Teti and the of Ramses II, then view the impressive Colossi of Memnon. The Great Sphinx that crouches nearby. In the Solar Boat pharaoh in the afterlife. Visit the Papyrus Hieroglyphic tombs in ancient Thebes to construct it. Stand before the mystifying, iconic Sphinx and then view the Great Pyramid of Khufu, the only surviving monument among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

Luxor

Cruising the Nile, one of the world’s longest rivers, you’ll travel back in time through ancient Egypt. This tranquil journey offers a window into the daily life of the people who called this land home. You’ll explore the ancient temples and tombs that have stood the test of time, marveling at the intricate carvings and grandiose structures that still stand today. Each day is a new discovery, allowing you to immerse yourself completely in your surroundings.

Luxor Museum. Discover the city’s many mosques, churches and temples. Begin at the impressive Citadel of Luxor. The most prestigious palace Thebes was ever to occupy. The memory of the city is kept alive today in its architecture and in the people who live here. The temple is dedicated to the goddess Hathor, which honors Queen Nefertari. In Kom Ombo, discover this unusual double temple dedicated to two uniquely Egyptian deities: the crocodile-headed god Sobek and the falcon-headed god Haroeris.

At the temple’s gargantuan size and the mammoth effort required to construct it, you can’t help but feel awestruck by the sheer scale of this architectural masterpiece. The temple’s complex layout and diverse array of deities offer a unique glimpse into the religious beliefs and practices of ancient Egypt. You’ll also have the opportunity to explore the surrounding area, where you can discover ancient ruins and artifacts that provide further insight into the rich history of this fascinating region.

Excursion: Valley of the Kings. Explore the grand, terraced Temple of Hatshepsut, seemingly built into the mountain-side. The temple is dedicated to the goddess Isis, who is depicted as the goddess of fertility, and the other to the falcon-headed god Horus, who is depicted as the god of the sky. The temple is located in the Valley of the Kings, part of a larger complex of tombs and temples dedicated to the pharaohs and their consorts.

Upon arrival, transfer to one of the city’s most elegant hotels, the luxurious Sonesta St. George I. This evening, attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and Dinner onboard the ship.
