Explore the World with Trojan Travel

For more than 40 years, Trojan Travel has provided exceptional tours to destinations near and far for members of the Trojan Family. Our tours offer a chance for exploration, education and discovery, and many feature exclusive encounters and special access. We handle all the details while you forge authentic connections with the people, cultural treasures and natural wonders of each destination.

This year, we are proud to offer nearly 50 trips to six continents. Detailed itineraries and trip particulars can be found online at TrojanTravel.usc.edu. We encourage you to book early to take advantage of special promotions and ensure availability. If you have any questions, please call us directly at (213) 821-6005.

We hope to have you along with us this year.

TROJAN TRAVEL GUIDELINES

Trojan Travel welcomes all members of the Trojan Family — alumni, parents, friends and family. Tour prices quoted are per person based on double occupancy. Dates, prices, itineraries and all other details are subject to change. We strive to make our tours safe, comfortable, rewarding and enjoyable for all of our guests. Travelers requiring assistance must be accompanied on their journey and should not expect handicap access or elevators in all locations; specific details can be found in the individual trip brochures. A small percentage of your trip fee goes to the USC Alumni Association to support alumni programming and events.
